Conaty, Now And Forever

The "echoes of memories", yes, "the echoes of memories" which began so many years ago with Bishop Thomas Conaty's dream in the summer of 1922. Since then Bishop Conaty High School has fostered the opportunity for so many young women to grow intellectually and spiritually. There have been many outward changes from the first fall of 1923 until today... The gardens, the classrooms, the teachers, the administration and the students. But one characteristic of Conaty has and will eternally remain: the people here are truly loving and giving. Conaty, we will continue to grow, to shine and "Praise thee ever on" through the 80's!

Anna Escoto pauses a moment to take a better look at all the Club Day options.

Freshmen Class Launch Into High School

Aymara Montejo, Giger Ortiz, Giana Anditto, and Laura Rodriguez are four young ladies who immediately proved their ambition and spirit by successfully running for Freshmen Class Office. With the help of their vibrant moderator Sister Bearrice, they organized a dynamite first year that benefited the entire Freshmen Class. These girls quickly started to build their Treasury with fantastic events like the car wash with Cathedral. The Freshmen Class also proved they could mix profit-making with pleasure by staging an enjoyable outing with Cathedral. This class of Conary newcomers continued to show their spirit throughout the year by avidly supporting important fundraisers like the Chocolate Drive. During the next three years the class of 1983 will surely become a shining example of the true meaning of "Conary Family".

Star Riders Of The Future

When most people think of Freshmen, they imagine scared, starry-eyed girls lost in a new world. Not so with the Cougars of 1983! It took this group little time to adjust to highschool life and assert themselves as women to be reckoned with in the future. No matter how small or how large the event, these girls were always there with whole-hearted support. As we all rocker into the '80's, you can be sure that the Cougars of '83 will be leading the way!

Officers Of 82' Aim Their Sights Into The Future

The Sophomore Officers are President Martha Dorantes, Vice-President Cruz Monreal, Secretary Elizabeth Romo, and Treasurer Margie De Anda. These girls have really organized their class into a dynamo of creative enthusiasm. Hot dog and bake sales are just a few of their many fundraisers. This money was used to support their highlight event, which is the Sophomore Sweetheart Dance. They planned the rest of their fundraising activities with their Junior Ring Ceremony in mind. Everyone is sure the Sophomore Officer's hard work and spirit will make this upcoming event a real success!

Sophomore Pride Creates An Industrious Class

The Sophomore year is a time for building toward the future. Many fundraising events take place in the hopes of successfully preparing for the costly activities of the upper division years.

Under the guidance of the ever-resourceful Mr. Duboff, the Foxes of 1982 proved themselves more than a match for this challenge. A multitude of events kept funds pouring into their Treasury. Outings with several boy's schools also proved to be occasions providing many cherished memories.

Sophomores Stage A Memorable Evening

The Sophomore Sweetheart Dance was one of the major social events held on the Conary campus during the 1980 year. On the evening of February 22, many stunningly attired couples arrived at the impressively decorated auditorium. A powerful sound system supplied the dancers with hard driving contemporary music. The Sophomore Sweetheart Dance was a very special day for all the Conary Sophomores.

The Royalties Of '81 Rocket Into Flight

This year the Junior class officers worked hard to benefit their classmates. With the usual '81 spirit, they overcame problems, and proved they could handle their jobs. The Magic Mountain trip, even though it was hard to plan because of the size of the class, turned out to be one of the best activities of the year. And the Ring Ceremony was also something to remember!

The Junior Farewell for our Seniors was one of the best dances of the year; but with officers like Linda Aparicio, Leticia Obledo, Emilia Elisarraraz, and Monica Villaquiran, how could it fail? They have already planned fundraisers for next year's Prom, and announced their pride and trust in their classmates by saying, "With each year that passes our class has gotten better and better, next year we will be the best!"

Royalettes Live Up To Their Regal Name

In order for a class to be to be strong and united, they, the individuals, must know each other. That is why activities such as the Magic Mountain Trip were planned. This was a day of enjoying together and gaining knowledge of each other. Joyously the Juniors and their one special guest began the trip up to Magic Mountain. Everyone loved the exhilarating attractions of the amusement park and the wonderful discovery of each other. The paramount event of any highschool girl's career is the Senior Prom. The Royalette Panda's of '81 realized this by giving tremendous support to the Easter Egg Sale; the fundraiser that gives the big financial push for this special event. This proves to be just one example of the pride that makes the Juniors a one-of-a-kind class!

Junior Class Receive Long Awaited Rings.

Year by year new classes arrive. Each with its own uniqueness and splendor. Because of the vast amount of taste and choices, each class decides on how they want to go about their activities. This was the case in the 1980 Junior Class Ring Ceremony. The Juniors chose to do things differently than the previous classes. They decided to avoid an extremely elaborate ceremony, but nevertheless, recieved their rings in an elegant manner. This day will remain clearly in the memories of all Juniors because they chose to do things differently and they showed an outward sigh of their belonging to the beautiful Conaty Community.

Class Of 81' Sponsors Senior Farewell.

The still silent Conary building seemed to come alive and sparkle as the decorations, lights, and music began for the 1980 Senior Farewell. The explosion began promptly at 7:30 and continued until Midnight. The moment everyone was waiting for was finally here, and it definately was an exciting evening. From all over the city of Los Angeles neighboring students poured anxiously into the massive activity. So many that it got to the point where the dance floor was reverberating with the sound of moving feet. This sparkle transformed to flame as the dance contest began and the motions of dancing conquered the evening. The Senior Farewell was an event all partakers would remember for a lifetime!

Seniors Terry Lemus and Lucia Avila impatiently wait for their first after school ride of the year.

Lupe Barrios and Caroline Mungia chat amongst themselves as they wait their turn for dismissal.

Rarely seen without her camera, Terry Barrios, yearbook photographer, clicks her way through Orientation Day.

Freshmen display mixed emotions of excitement, contentment and curiosity on their first day as high school students.

Although listening attentively to the welcome speeches, Seniors found time to compare notes on their summer experiences.

Conaty Prepares For A Take-Off Year

Gazing through their promised eyes upon the aging walls of Conaty, the girls are determined to produce a fruitful year of spirit, pride and unity. It's Orientation Day, September 7 & 10, the year in its prime and the perfect place and time to begin.

It's a day of reunion for some, and for others, a dreaded routine. The day commenced with welcome speeches from the heads-of-administration in informing students of Conaty policies, student obligations, and the explanation of confusing schedules.

The student government gave a delightful insight of Conaty's moods through a hearty slide show. The girls then made their way to their designated classes. Purchasing books essential for the years classes was the final happening of the chaotic day.

Fatigue stricken girls trudged down the corridor at battle with towers of newly bought books. The highlight of the day exploded as one by one, elated girls confronted the exit doors.

It could clearly be seen on the faces of the many students, the anticipation of the beginning of another school year.

Bigail dreads coming back to classes the next day as she places her thoughts on Friendship day.

Seniors show one of the most tiresome yet fun ways of cooling off.

Friendship Day

September 10 was Friendship Day, the traditional gathering of the Freshman and the Seniors. During this activity girls new to the campus are welcomed into the Conary Family by their big sisters. The day began at Noon with a grand picnic on the green. Music was piped out over the loudspeakers while Seniors and Freshman got acquainted. Whether it was taking part in the water balloon contest or sitting down to a nice game of backgammon, the students had a wonderful time forming these important relationships. The day was a great success! Friendship Day welcomed the Freshman to the always growing Conary Community. The day also reminded the Seniors how it was to be a Freshman. Warm memories and lots of smiles finished off a day that established friendships that will last forever.

Nowadays, everyone is trying to get into the picture.

The day seemed to sparkle everyone's fun as Rosa, Natalie and Mrs. Sleeper display.

Scenes like this were not an odd sight as everyone cooled off with water balloons.

If water-ballooning isn't your thing, how about placing a helpless Freshman in a trashcan?

A typical scene by the 'Wild and Crazy' friends on Friendship Day.

As sad as it was to end the day, Freshmen express their "thank you."

We Are All Promises Through The Lord

The Opening School Mass for the 1979-80 year was held at St. Thomas. The whole student body and faculty walked to Church and attended the Mass. The theme for this year is "I am a Promise" which means we are a promise to ourselves and to God. Our new Chaplain Father Michael Carroll presided over the ceremony and as he said the Mass he showed how happy he was to be part of the Conary Family. Our opening song was "I have a Dream." Carmen Tallon, our Associated Student Body President, gave a welcoming speech to begin the liturgy. Throughout the Celebration the student body participated with anticipation; showing their true faith and love for God and one another. The school liturgy ended with everyone joining in to sing the Alma Mater. Each Class President offered something that symbolized that one class can stand as individuals yet remain united. Father Carroll made each and every girl aware of the special presence of Christ at Bishop Conary. After the Mass ended we were all ready to start and share a great year with one another.

YEARBOOK BLASTS OFF WITH A UNIQUE PRESENTATION

The Pallium Drive Assembly, which was held on September 26, 1979 in the Bishop Conary auditorium, was a most colorful event not to be forgotten by Conary girls. The Yearbook Staff launched its Drive by introducing our very spirited Cheerleaders to prepare the students for what was yet to come. Since the Yearbook is a self supporting organization, a representative from each class, including the faculty, was chosen to briefly summarize the importance of purchasing a Yearbook. Skits which included Yearbook staff members were an important addition to the show. Mr. Vlaco, Yearbook Moderator, showed his great enthusiasm by participating and hosting in the "Yearbook Family" skit. Part of the Yearbook Family included Mrs. Yearbook, played by a well-known Senior, Demetra Davis, and Baby Yearbook, played by the very enthusiastic Junior, Angie Gonzalez. Next the bright and colorful Julie Chavez conquered black and white Nena Sarmiento. The importance of the black and white vs color skit was to make the students aware of the impact of color on a quality Yearbook. Many thanks and acclaim were given to the Staff for a fine production of a uniquely presented show.

During the Chocolate Rally Lerry Obledo, Rosemary Gonzales, and Monica Villaquiran were outstanding examples of class spirit.

The classic Foxes show their pride and enthusiasm.

A Great Year For Chocolate

The Chocolate Drive, one of the most extravagant events at Conaty began October 11. This fabulous and action filled activity is the biggest fundraiser of the year. This main event was triggered by a rally which sparked the auditorium with cheers, songs, and class mascots. The rallies were divided into two assemblies: Freshmen and Sophomores, and Seniors and Juniors.

Everyone was filled with excitement preparing to sell the most chocolates. The ultimate goal: to be the class with the highest percentage sold. We had the goal, the energy, and the urge to sell, sell and definitely make this event a great success. With all these qualities the anxious students began to sell their quotas plus more. The competition was stiff and remained so all throughout the week.

Sylvia Basaca and Jocelyn Espina exchange a warm handshake while Alma Lara observes this display of pride and friendship.

Anxious to sell their candy, Donna Antrillon, Quera Castillo, and Becky Calderon hurry down the hall.

Even though selling chocolate is hard work, Yolie Ramirez demonstrates that it's no challenge to her.

Juniors show the crowd their number one!

All the classes started out evenly and eventually each began to increase with some falling behind. The Freshmen spirit was quickly evident. They managed to reach their mark; 100% of their class sold their quota which gave them first place in the class ratings.

Shirlee Carter from 10 s 2 was the school's top seller. The highlight of the whole drive was earning a day off by reaching an unbelievable 99% for the school.

As a kitty cat Terri Lemus gives one of her prettiest smiles.

Halloween's A Real Scream

Clowns, vampires, Dolly Parton and Playboy bunnies were among the many celebrities lined up to join Conary's Second Annual Costume Parade. The sun was reflecting among the many made-up faces on this spooky and hilarious Wednesday, the 31st of October. The costume parade gave all Conary girls an opportunity to show their many talents such as originality, imagination, and spirit.

Girls dressed in varied costumes, which made it extremely difficult for the seven judges, who were faculty members and the four class presidents, to decide who the prizes were to be given to. The prizes were divided into three categories: one to the "most original" which was won by the Senior soldier group, second category, "funniest", went to an old married couple and third category, "scariest", went to the vampiest looking vampire.

Along with the students many teachers dressed up and joined in on all the fun and action. Sr. Judy Molosky gave everyone the biggest surprise and also received one herself: she was treated as a student which gave her a big chance to see how it feels to be a student today. This among the many costumes, outfits and wild make-up were just part of the excitement-filled Halloween celebration at Conary.

Vicki Rodriguez, Emmy Elisarraraz, Rosemary Davila, and Julie Chavez really stick'em up for Halloween!

Seniors Rock Into The 80's

As the early winter dew fell over Los Angeles, Conary's doors flung open, allowing a celebration of disco, punk and soul. This was definately "Lady's Night"! The music, provided by "Phase IV", vibrated the couples to join in to the dynamic sounds of disco, the 70ish dances of punk, and the smooth rhythmic moves of soul. The crowd was very responsive to this combination of music as it was an opportunity to see and dance to different types of music. This lively dance, held on November 9, was Conary's first dance of the 1979-80 year. This event proved that all Conary students and their guests are able to appreciate the many types of music available to today's listeners.

Welcoming Students Of The Future

With curious and anxious faces two-hundred and six eight graders entered the welcoming doors of Bishop Conaty. This event was the annual eight grade welcome which provides eight graders from all over Los Angeles with an opportunity to see and feel the Conaty unity, the academic programs and all the daily activities as a Conaty family member. This event was a great success under the organization and supervision of Sister Gloria Sturgeon, who provided these young women with a chance to see what Conaty spirit was all about!

Thanksgiving Liturgy Reflects True Giving

This year the importance of community and family were stressed and promised by the Bishop Conaty students. At the first Mass, the students and faculty recognized and vowed their belonging to a maturing and loving community. This is a time of Thanksgiving, a time especially set aside to reflect and be aware of all the gifts around us— And most important, to praise and give thanks to the Lord. Along with the material preparations for sharing their concern, the Conaty family shared their faith, love and thanksgiving prayers in the presence of the Lord Jesus Christ in a beautiful Thanksgiving Liturgy. On November 21, the gifts from the food drive and the spiritual gifts were presented to the representatives of the families of St. Agnes Parish. With content and loving hearts, the spirit of the Conaty family sparked the auditorium with the joy and satisfaction this Thanksgiving Celebration brought.

Non-Catholics were able to participate in the Thanksgiving Liturgy in a special way by receiving a blessing from Father Carroll.

Conaty Rocks Back Into The 50's

Who says the 1950's are gone forever? If you were on the Conaty campus on November 30, you would have sworn the fun-filled fifties were back! Even though those rocking fifties weren't back to stay, Conaty students relived them for several hours. Suddenly the campus was filled with poodle skirts, pony tails, black and white suede shoes, greased hair and black jackers. Adding the finishing touches to this 50's day was Rock n' Roll sounds that soared all throughout the campus, encouraging students to rise and participate in the dancing, cramming into the jammed telephone booth and to pour their pennies into the spirit jugs. Although there were thousands of pennies they didn't measure the excitement and enjoyment that was experienced by the 1979 students on this day.

Christ Is Reborn Into Conaty's Family

"Come Jesus once more into my life" as Sister Kathleen so beautifully said in a reflection was one of the main thoughts throughout the Christmas liturgy celebrated December 18. The glittery decorations, the Christmas carols and the very many merry wishes were just a part of the Christmas spirit at Bishop Conaty. With this enchanting setting the students and faculty members gathered to meditate upon the true meaning of Christmas- The birth of Jesus. As a community reflecting on the significance of Jesus in our daily lives, the Conaty family realized that Christmas is a time to allow the shining of the tinsel and the gloss of the wrapped foil gifts to truly become part of our daily lives.

International Day: Sharing Our Rainbow

A multitude of cultural diversity exploded on International Day as festive costumes lit up the campus and the odor of international cuisine added to the excitement of this annual event. This year the theme "Sharing Your Rainbow" was chosen by the A.S.B. and it flowed throughout the entire event. Students had an opportunity to share their heritage by wearing costumes and bringing familiar and exotic foods. After an extended lunch the International spotlight flashed on dances from Mexico to Hawaii. The show also included a flamboyant fashion show. This year parents along with family members and many guests had an opportunity to enjoy the delightful and enlightening performances promoting cultural discoveries; truly an opportunity to "Share Your Rainbow"!

An Honored Visit From Cardinal Manning

December is a month filled with many preparations to celebrate the holiday festivities. One of Conary's major preparation was not a holiday festivity but a very honored visit from Cardinal Timothy Manning.

On December 7th, the Cardinal arrived at Conary and was greeted by many of the students. Aside from the highlight of his presence, was the highlight of sharing the Eucharistic Celebration with all of the Conary family.

Along with Conary's Chaplain, Father Michael Carroll and St. Thomas's Father Peterson, the Cardinal celebrated mass and shared some of his reflections on the Immaculate Conception.

The Cardinal thanked the Conary family for the invitation and expressed this sincere thought: "I'm very happy to see so many beautiful young ladies gathered in the presence of the Lord."

Emily Rodriguez greets Cardinal Timothy Manning with a pom pom to really get him into the Conary spirit!

Teaching Us For The Future

After the many years that Conary's firm walls, windows and doors have been here they continue to stand erect and proud. Who, along with the students continues to promote academic progress? The administration, often behind the scenes, four very warm, giving and devoted actualizers continue to strive for the present fulfillment of the Conary dream. Among the congested schedules of academic programming, school policies, disciplinary regulations and supervision of the entire school they have time to share of themselves with the students and to get involved in the activities planned by students. This proves that in order for Conary to survive many more years these four administrators have to be firm in their decisions and able to let the youth in them rejoice with the youth of Conary today.

There are many advantages to be derived from this field. Examples are high paying jobs pertaining to business such as accounting and data processing. There are also positions in engineering, architecture, and of course, teaching. People who take Math learn to use their mind to its fullest potential. In today's ever changing world, the field of Social Studies takes on an increasingly important role in the high school curriculum. In order for an individual to make decisions on a personal level, she must be aware of the long-term trends dictating social change. With a contemporary viewpoint in mind, the Social Studies Program supplies the Conary student with a background in United States History and American Government, as well as a chance to appreciate the diversity of human existence as it manifests itself in the many world cultures.

Developing Writing Skills For The Future

"Man's greatest invention is language. It is man's finest, strongest weapon, deepest resource, largest hope."

Since each person possesses this magical gift of language each person has the potential to develop it and use it well throughout life. This is one of the main objectives of the English Department, to nurture the students to develop this potential.

The way the English Department is accomplishing their goal is by promoting the knowledge of basic skills in underclass courses to literature which offer the students an opportunity to absorb expressions from varied literature and to express ideas, impressions and feelings in correct and proper writing styles.

Language: The Key To International Communication

In our multi-cultured society knowing at least two languages has many advantages. By taking Spanish, you can find the origin of many English words. Also, if you plan on getting a job, knowing two languages is an impressive addition to your resume. By taking French you get a better understanding of English and Spanish. And if you ever plan on traveling, French is the language for you! Besides learning the language, students explore the customs and traditions of foreign cultures.

Sister Peter Marie, one of Conary's Spanish teachers, is always happy to see her students progress.

Science Moves Into A New Age

What is life? How does life begin and exist? These are among the many questions the Science Department strives to answer. The chemical equations of Chemistry and the dissections in Biology along with the Science alternatives offer the students an opportunity to become aware of the environment and changes in this technological age.

With the possibility of grasping all this knowledge students are challenged with a strategic thinking and the ability to handle items ranging from: mild to dangerous chemicals to making health charts.

This year Mrs. Sleeper's Biology students were challenged with yet another discovery-Tee shirts. Style and design of the Tee shirts were voted on by the students. Mrs. Sleeper also encouraged the girls to wear their Tee shirts on class field trips.

Year by year the students are more aware of the importance of scientific knowledge because of challenges offered in the Science Department.

Artistic Ability Comes Of Age

Bishop Conary offers a large variety of opportunities for the young talented artist. Artistic ability is a special gift. Inside the Conary walls one can find many girls endowed with this talent.

Fine Art has been offered at Conary for years. The classes range from Drawing, Literature, Dancing and Music. Our Fine Art instructors teach the students not only to appreciate beautiful art but to enjoy it as well.

Home Ec.: For Better Living In the 80's

Home Economics is a course that was established to develop a girl's sense of responsibility towards herself, her home, and her family. Conaty girls have received Home Economic instruction in order to develop a sense of value, resourcefulness, enthusiasm and genuine interest in all aspects of homemaking and family life. Each student has learned to identify with and develop certain fundamentals that increase knowledge and skills in family and communal living. Many students will be successful in raising a family or reaching professional goals in Home Economics because of the guidance from Miss Somogyi.

Club's Day: The Promise Of An Active Year

On September 20, the A.S.B. sponsored Club's Day. It started out as a usual Thursday. But right after lunch all the students assembled on the green. Carmen Tallon, the A.S.B. President, opened Club's Day with a prayer. Then club presidents and moderators told students about each of the organizations at Bishop Conary. All the speakers were informative and enthusiastic. When the speakers had finished everyone was allowed to sign up for the club of her choice. As the bell rang for the last period of the day many students were still signing up. From the student response on Club's Day, it seems that most of the girls were really ready for an active year.

A.S.B. members Cynthia Guillory, Amelita Hakson and Cynthia Quilang encourage these on-comers to partake in school activities.

Club's Day had everyone's interest in mind; here Jacqueline Quiros tries to sell the girls on her club.

With posters, pictures and articulate club representatives, the Library Club got quite a few sign-ups.

Decision-Making Body Working Together

This year our ASB aimed at uniting the students. Carmen Tallon, Millette Hokson, Ester Boone and Cynthia Quilang sum up their aspirations with the well chosen theme for the 1979-80 year: "I am a Promise." Together with Sister Gloria de Jesus, the officers organized many activities. Their devotion and care for the school was reflected in the success of these fulfilled activities. Purple Day gave the students a chance to display school pride. Another ASB sponsored project was International Day. This event was a huge success, giving the girls a chance to express their many ethnical backgrounds. Club's Day motivated students towards various organizations. The Opening Liturgy for the school year made all the Conary family feel welcome. All in all, our officers have shown the true meaning of unity. They worked together, keeping the student body informed, involved and organized.

Beavers Spike Their Way Into Victory

Don't just love that sexy look!

This was our year in volleyball! We went to the playoffs, an achievement which has not been done since 1973 at Bishop Conary High School. This really proves that practice makes perfect. Coach Learned and the team put in many hours of hard work studying the game of volleyball and developing the skills that make a winning team. This helped raise the Conary spirit, and with more spirit, we are sure to have successful volleyball seasons in the years to come.

Basketball is a physically demanding sport that requires mental abilities as well. The team members practiced every day to improve their body coordination and their mental discipline. Coached by Ms. Learned, the team made it all the way to the playoffs. Even the disappointment of losing in the league playoffs couldn't bring down the team's high spirits. Led by Linda Aparicio and Griselda Lopez and supported by Coach Learned, all the players knew they were number one in confidence and unity. Every day these dedicated girls sacrificed their leisure hours in extended practice. Conaty Beavers are #1!

Drillettes

Unify School Spirit

One of the prominent components of the G.A.A. is the drill team known as the Drillettes. Led for the second year by Rafaela Turner and Kathy Stokes, they have become an important part of the spirit boost here at Bishop Conaty High School. The spark that the Drillettes add to our assemblies is a dynamic force that won't be forgotten for a long time!

Sharing For A Better World

One of the most active and vivid clubs at Conary is a club known as Project Concern. The main objective of the club is to dedicate themselves to aid communities in need and in spreading Christianity. The attempt to accomplish these two main objectives were visible in their varied activities. Under the leadership of Sr. Judy Molosky, Moderator, and Eva Pinela, president, the club organized and promoted activities such as; the turkey and food drive for Thanksgiving, Candy-grams on Valentines Day, a visit to a juvenile detention center, Bloodmobile Drive, the 3rd Annual Hunger Walk, and a visit to a Tijuana Orphanage.

Through their many efforts and activities it can be said that Project Concern certainly has accomplished their objectives and touched many through them.

Over the past 4 years, Eva Pinela has been a shining example of Christian services and the Conary spirit.

The group that sets out to capture the many precious, excitement the hard working Yearbook Staff. This year the staff of 10, with Marty Ambriz (Editor) and Moderator Mr. Vlaco, dedicated long hours and ideas to the Yearbook. Our world of journalism is represented by Bishop Conary's Chronicle. The main events of the school year are covered and important and informative interviews take place. The newspaper also gives the girls the opportunity to explore the fundamentals of journalism. The Chronicle Staff is led by Moderator Roger Knight, who advises and oversees the newspaper work, Editor Eva Pinela, and Co-Editor Jackie Quiros. They combine their creative ideas and work together to produce the Chronicle. The Chronicle supplies the student body with two newspapers every month. The Art Guild was first established three years ago. It has grown from a small club to a membership of 55 students, moderated by Ms. Acosta. The club is open to anyone willing and interested in sharing their creative talents and ideas. With various fundraisers the hard-working members of this club brought their treasury up from $0.00 to $131.00. They helped other organizations with posters, had bake sales, showed movies, and sold stationery with the mascot of each class imprinted on the paper. Members of this club earn points by participating in activities. When they have achieved enough points they are rewarded with an Art Guild pin and letter.

Moulding Careers For Today's Challenges

The counseling center is headed by Sister Noel. She willingly works the majority of the school day helping students orientate their schedules according to their ability and goals. She helps Juniors and Seniors make decisions concerning college, jobs, and the future in general. Whenever someone has a problem, Ms. Neiburg or Sister Noel always lend a compassionate ear. The counseling center has an atmosphere of friendliness and helpfulness. The counselors work to help you find whatever you happen to need. If for some reason they don't have what you need they will go to any length to help you find what you want!

Afterschool Rush Hour

When the bell rings everyone rushes up and down the halls. Anticipating tonight's homework, some go to their lockers looking for books. Others see teachers about classwork or just stop by to visit. Still others rush around looking for friends who were supposed to meet them ten minutes ago. It is truly a hurried time when everyone is on the move! Out on Ardmore Street cars are bumper to bumper. Parents, friends, and fellow students wait for girls to pack up and get ready to drive home. Still others work after school on projects, club meetings, office work, sports, and even Yearbook. After school lots of activities take place, making this school what it is from 8:00 to 3:00. This is an ever present process which most students aren't even aware of!

Library Club members Lerry Obledo, Claudia Saca, and Laura Ibarra donate their time after school to reorganize the library after a hard and busy day of service.

Conaty And Cathedral Join Together

Among the exciting activities that occur during your Senior year, many will endure as vivid memories. This was the case with the outing between Cathedral and Conaty. The event began with an action-packed game of volleyball while the more relaxed individuals enjoyed the tension of backgammon. When the rain came a feeling of serenity prevailed and many mingled and socialized. Then the first sounds of the electrifying discjockeys sprang from the speakers and the dance started. Overall, the outing was an occasion where friendliness projected by both schools and controlled the event.

As others found themselves playing volleyball, this student from Cathedral concentrates on his backgammon game.

Seniors Start Off With A Splash

With pails, sponges and towels, the mighty Seniors kicked off the first Car Wash of the year in a very successful manner. This Saturday wasn't going to be a usual one for the 20 Seniors who scrubbed and washed vans and trucks.

Soap suds dribbled up in the air covering the Chevron Station sign announcing the place where you could have gotten your car cleaned by a handful of beautiful girls.

After the griming work, the hard car-washers had a little celebration at a nearby Pizza Place. Here, the soap spots dried bringing about an end to a very active day.

Starlites Shine Into The 80's

In the midst of all the decisions that have to be made about their future, the mighty Class of 1980 proved that they are able to work together, bringing unity among themselves and setting an example for their underclassmates. This year the glittering Starlites led by Aquedolyn Cannon (President), Jenny Amador (Vice President), Nancy Armenta (Secretary), and Rosa Reyes (Treasurer), began the school year excitedly realizing they were powerful Seniors. Demonstrating the Conaty spirit they made Friendship Day a meaningful and memorable occasion for all their little friends from the Class of 1983 while renewing old friendships among themselves. A carwash propelled the first of many fundraisers which provided enjoyable outings with other schools and contributed to the Prom and Graduation. All in all, the Seniors showed enthusiasm, excitement, and unity throughout this very productive and successful year.

I'd like to thank-you for being my little sister here at Conary for the past three years. You've been very special to me. Thanks for listening and caring to all my joys and sadness.

Nena always keep in mind that if you ever need anything or an ear to listen, just call and I'll be happy to help.

I hope your last year here at Conary will be fun and filled with memories. Take care throughout the summer and don't ever forget I love you.

Dear Mom and Dad;

At the thought of this new beginning for me I can't help reflecting on my first day of school and the path that leads to today.

Mami and Papi, along this road that has become filled with three places I can always see you two. Yes, this is a new beginning for me;
 my time to begin reaching out to my hopes and my dreams. But mom and dad, you have made it possible for me to become me.

You two who have become one rainbow of love have shared your dreams, hopes and lives with me.

This unity, and example has brought concepts of love and friendship into my life. You've made it possible for me to realize who I am and my potential. You've allowed me to make mistakes to grow and to learn. In this freedom, mom and dad, I say I Love You and I thank you for sharing so much and allowing me to share with you. I thank you both for dedication. Love Always, Eva

Rosa Elena, we wish you the best of luck in everything you do. We hope you reach your goals in life.
Love, Mom and Dad

Rosa Elena, thank you for always being there when we needed you. Thanks for that smile and your jokes when we needed some cheering up.
